Presbytery of Chesapeake.

The stated fall meeting of the Presbytery of Chesapeake was held at the church at Greenwich, Prince William county. The opening session was held on Tuesday evening, Sept. 20th and the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. J. W. Lupton, of Leesburg.

Rev. J. A. Carrington was elected moderator and Elder C. P. Janney temporary clerk.

At the session on Wednesday morning, Rev. Dr. Hanner, of the Presbytery of Washington city, being present, was invited to sit as a corresponding member and was very heartily greeted by the members of the Presbytery.

An interesting sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Brooke, of Alexandria, from the text, "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world!" at the close of which the Lord's Supper was observed.

The ladies of the Greenwich church entertained the Presbytery at noon, spreading tables for lunch in the beautiful grove adjoining the church.

The Presbytery has on its roll fourteen ministers and nineteen churches in Loudoun, Prince William, Fauquier and Alexandria counties.

Policy Men Fined.

Pursuant to orders from Commonwealth's Attorney Cradall Mackey, of Alexandria county, Sheriff Palmer on Thursday evening raided the alleged policy shop conducted in Rosslyn, it is said, by John Turvey and Carl Kenzig. The prisoners were taken to the Fort Myer courthouse, where they were tried at once by Justices East and Thompson. The men were fined $25 and costs and ordered to serve one hour in jail. The accused were represented by Mr. R. L. Moncre. The minimum penalty was asked by the defendants on the strength of a promise to keep their word to close up shop. Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey says he intends in the near future to procure warrants for the arrest of the proprietors of the St. Asaph pool room and have the case tried before one justice of the peace.

Death of an Alexandrian.

Mr. William Kidwell, a native of this city, but for the past quarter of a century a resident of Philadelphia, died in that city on Tuesday last. The deceased was about 62 years old. He was a printer by trade and an apprentice in this office many years ago. At the outbreak of the war between the States Mr. Kidwell was a member of the Old Dominion Rifles and left here with that command on the 24th of May, 1861. This company throughout the war was known as company H, Seventeenth Virginia Infantry. He served during the four years' conflict and returned to his home in 1865. He was subsequently employed on the Southern Churnman, Gazette and other Alexandria papers. About 25 years ago he went to Philadelphia where he had since lived. He leaves a widow.

Singing Society.

The singing society organized in the Second Presbyterian Church recently will resume rehearsals on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock in the lecture room of the church. This society was formed for the purpose of teaching pupils to read music at sight and the rudiments of vocal culture and chorus singing, and is open to all persons interested in such work. The officers of the society are: Mr. George B. Kennedy, president; Dr. J. H. Bitzer, secretary; Miss Mary Moore, treasurer; Mr. S. Frederick Smith, of Washington College of Music, director.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Clarence Chesson, arrested by Officers Knight and Bettis as a suspicious character, was dismissed. George Checkfield, arrested by the same officer on a similar charge, had his case continued.

John Butler, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Smith charged with stealing a pair of trousers from James Hall, was dismissed.

Testimonial Concert.

The testimonial concert tendered James M. Buckner at the Opera House last night was a decided success. The auditorium was crowded, and among those in attendance were over one hundred colored people from Washington. Entertainment was interesting and enjoyed by all present.

A new light has been placed in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall.

New Police Regulations.

The police force of the city assembled in the Mayor's office at 3 o'clock this afternoon to receive the instructions agreed upon at the last meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners. Mayor Paff was present, and in his remarks to the force he substantially set forth the determination of the board to see that each individual member performed his duty satisfactorily. He referred to the fact that the police force was, by virtue of his position, under his control, and that he had determined, with the consent of the members of the Police Board, to hold the Chief responsible for the proper working of the force. In order that the latter might have the fullest scope and power in the discharge of his duties, the Chief was authorized to arrange the beats and assign the members of the squads according to his own judgment, with the best results in view.

Chief Webster subsequently delivered a brief charge to the men, during which he said that as he had had the responsibility referred to by the Mayor placed upon him, it was his purpose to see that each member of the force performed his duty faithfully, and in cases of dereliction, violation of rules or conduct unbecoming officers, the delinquents would be promptly dealt with.

The squads as arranged by Chief Webster are as follows:

First ward—Messrs. Sherwood, Bettis and Mayhugh.

Second ward—Messrs. Gill, Smith and Nicholson.

Third ward—Messrs. Arrington, Ferguson and Knight.

Fourth ward—Messrs. Beach, Allen and Lyles.

Washington and King streets will be the dividing lines of the beats, and the new rules went into effect at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The members of the force are seemingly well pleased with the changes made.

Personal.

Mr. Frank Bangs, the actor, was in the city yesterday. While here he proceeded to south Fairfax street, near Wilkes, where he had a picture taken of the house in which he was born 72 years ago.

Captain S. B. Davis, for several years commander of the U. S. transport Kearney, has been transferred to the quartermaster's steamer at Norfolk.

Misses Maude and Marie Chamblin, who have been visiting Mrs. J. D. H. Lunt, have returned to their home in Loudoun.

Miss Nannie E. Hoskinson, who has been visiting Miss Katherine Price, left this morning for her home in Middleburg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Swan have returned from New York.

Mr. John S. Goodrich, an attaché of the freight office of the Southern Railway Company, has resigned his position, and will shortly become bookkeeper for Fairfax & Co., liquor dealers.

The Railway Improvements.

The large number of men employed west and northwest of Alexandria in constructing the tracks and trestles for the Washington-Southern Railway has taxed Alexandria considerably. There is still said to be a lack of hotel accommodations, and the proprietor of one public house said this morning that he was compelled last night to turn away applicants for accommodations. This is, however, an ordinary incident. The lumber dealers are having their facilities taxed to the utmost in consequence of the daily requisitions made upon them, and indirectly all branches of trade are being accelerated by present conditions.

Property Sales.

C. O. Pulman has sold to J. Matthews a house and lot on the west side of Patrick street, between Oronoco and Pendleton.

S. G. Brent, special commissioner, has sold to C. O. Pulman a house and lot at the southeast corner of Prince and Wolfe streets, for $1,150.

Mr. Luther Carter, real estate agent, has sold the farm of Mr. Leonard Brown, 2½ miles west of Alexandria, to Mr. Thomas H. Lyles for $3,500 cash.

Mr. H. F. Wheat has sold to Mr. John Foley two lots in Wheat and Sater's sub-division.

The Market.

There was an amply supply of country produce in market this morning. Most articles were unchanged in price. Eggs, however, were soaring upward, and were held at 25c to 28c a dozen. Chickens were selling at $1.25 a pair. Butter was unchanged in price. Fresh pork brought 13½c a pound. Chinquapins have made their appearance. They sold at 10c a quart. Vegetables showed no material change in quotations. The fish dealers had fine specimens of salt water varieties, also fine white perch.

Port Paraphs.

The schooner Charles L. Holland has discharged her cargo of sand for the Old Dominion Glass Works, and will sail today for Norfolk.

The schooner Bertha May, with wood from the lower Potomac for Mr. DeW. Aitchison, has arrived.

Salvation Army.

Ensign Roper and a company of the Salvation Army will hold religious services at the corner of King and Royal streets at 7 p. m. and at King and Patrick at 7:30 p. m. Monday. They will give a lecture at Shuler's Hall at 8 p. m. illustrated by stereoscopic views.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such is the brief of the condition of an old soldier by the name of J. J. Havens, Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and he no longer suffers. "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 25c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

One of the trolley poles on south Royal street fell this afternoon, but did no damage.

The Mercantile Association has recently advanced nearly $15,000 to builders and purchasers of houses in this city and vicinity.

Oyster Soup at Bass's, 114 north Fairfax street, tonight. All invited.
